Event Name: Students' Week

Venue: Ranaghat College

Date: From 2-1- 2024 to 8-1-2024

Objective: The sole purpose of observing Students' Week is to breathe fresh air into academic set-up, to make students campus-oriented and to provide them opportunity to participate in different kinds of cultural and athletic competition. For this purpose, the college authority, following the instruction and guidelines of Government of West Bengal, observed Students' week.

Description: The inaugural day of Students' Week i.e., 2nd January, 2024 witnessed the lighting of the lamp by the Principal of Ranaghat College which was followed by the inaugural song sung by students. Thereafter the Principal delivered his inspiring speech for students and presented details of the program in brief. Following the principal's address, the coordinator of IQAC and some members of teaching staff also tried to enliven the spirit of students with their speech and urge learners to participate in all the programs in order to make the observance of Students' Week a great success. Following the inaugural program, various items of Students' Week were organized according to the schedule given above.

Day 1

On the opening day of the Students' Week, a seminar on Library Orientation took place. The seminar was intended to arouse the interest of students in using library properly. Different aspects of library and its advantages came up in the discussion during seminar. The Librarian and other staff attached to library threw light on the proper use of library and the reading room. Along with them, the Principal and some members of teaching staff narrated their experience in course of visiting different libraries and informed learners how they were immensely benefited from the library during their research. The speakers also threw light on the advantages of using digital library and e-resources. The latter half of the day made students enjoy Kabaddi competition for men and women. The competition was conducted by the sporting members of teaching staff of college. Learners participated in Kabaddi competition with great enthusiasm and performed in it very well. The name of winning team was announced at the end of the game.

The following day of Students' Week began with the seminar on Ways to Reduce Screen Time. The seminar was intended to make students cautious regarding the excessive use of mobile phone and computer. The Principal and some members of teaching staff pointed out the harmful effect of the excessive use of screen time and suggested ways to reduce the screen time. Learners were advised to restrict the use of electronic devices. They were urged to engage themselves in various creative works, gardening, cultural and athletic activities to avoid the use of mobile phone and computer for a considerable time. Along with the teachers, students also gave their opinions on the issue and shared their views in this regard with others.

The seminar was followed by Extempore Speech Competition and Quiz Competition. The concerned committees conducted the two kinds of competition in different rooms. The committee for the extempore speech selected various topics for the participants who showed keen interest in putting up their views on their topics. The participants showed their argumentative skill and power of thinking in course of making speech. The participants were judged on the basis of the content, mode of presentation and pronunciation. In the end, the names of winners were announced. A large number of learners participated in Quiz Competition. Learners were divided into various groups. The concerned committee conducted the competition properly. Questions on general awareness and other interesting topics were asked during quiz competition. The three winning groups were announced at the end of the quiz competition.

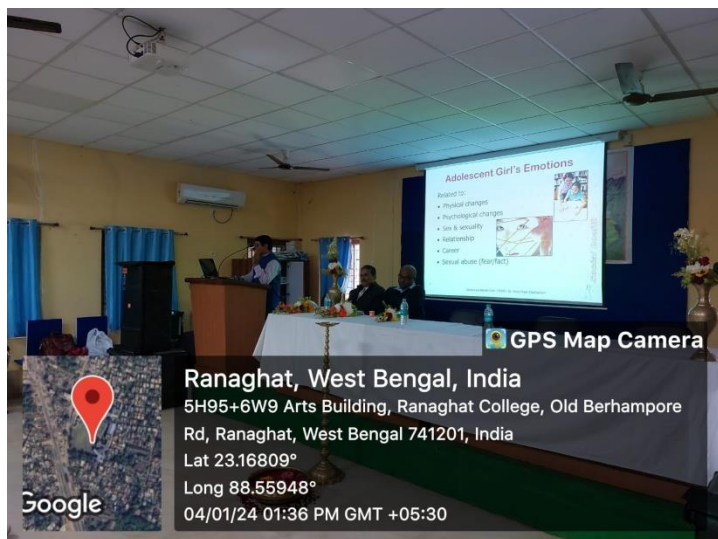

In the afternoon, a volley ball match was played between students and the members of teaching staff in the playground. The match was greatly enjoyed by the audience. Throughout the day, a dedicated team kept informing students about Student Credit Card and SVMCM Scholarship. Learners were informed how to apply for them and they were also told about the benefit from the aforementioned schemes.

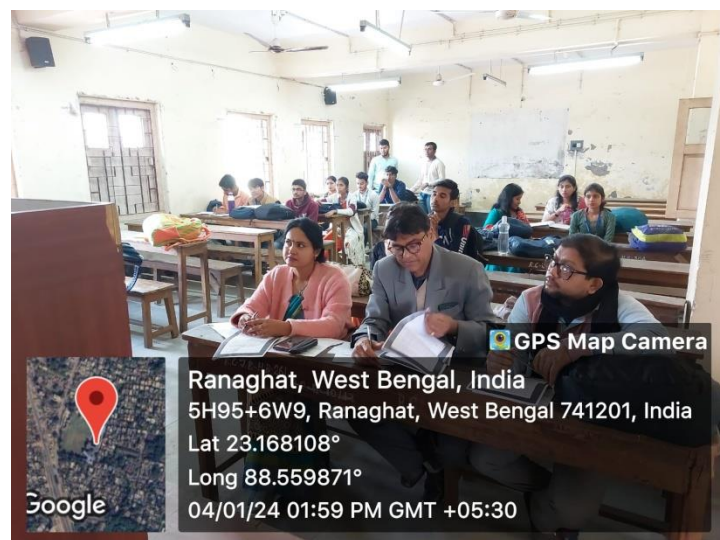

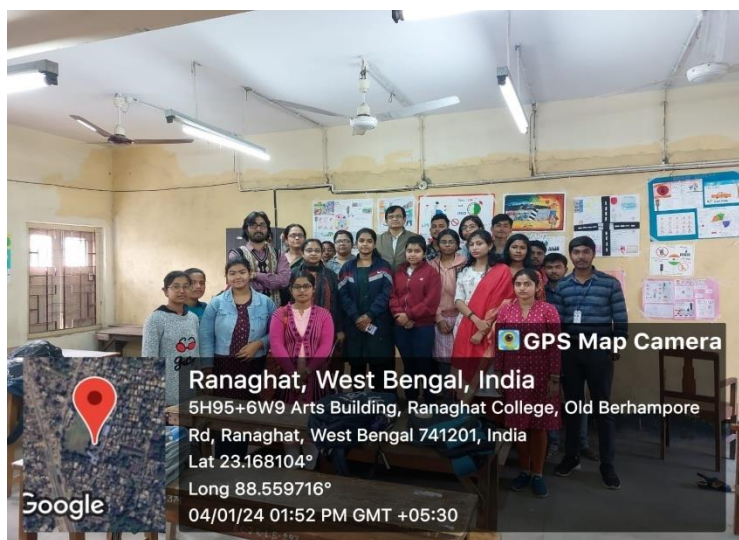

Day 3

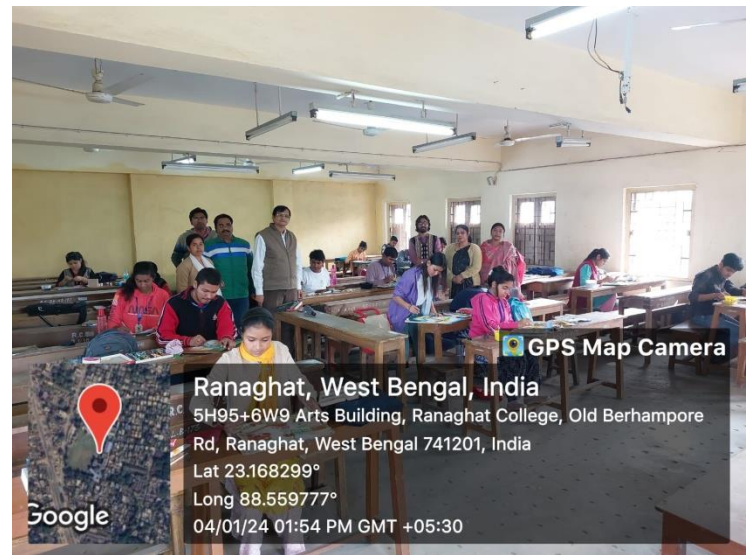

The program of third day of Students' Week was scheduled to begin with the awareness program on Health and Hygiene, along with a health check-up camp. The awareness program and the camp were organized in college with the cooperation of Lions Club. The speakers focused specially on the psychological problem of youth and the health problem of women during the awareness program. Both learners and the staff of college were benefited from the health check-up camp.

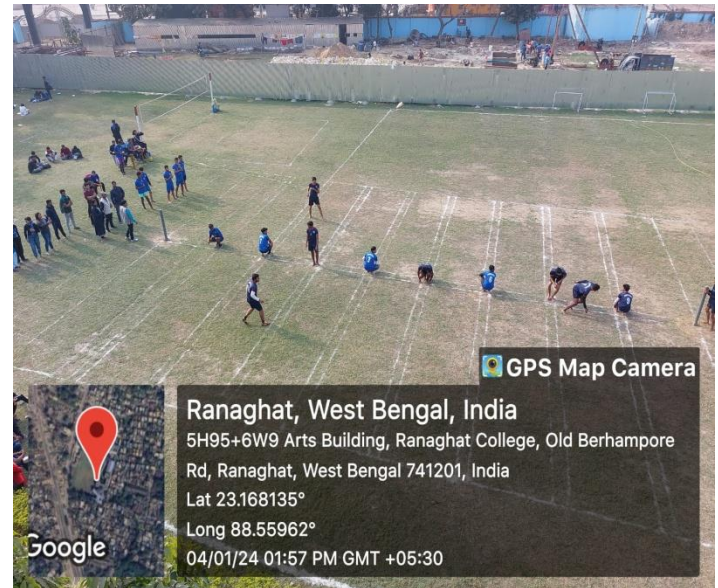

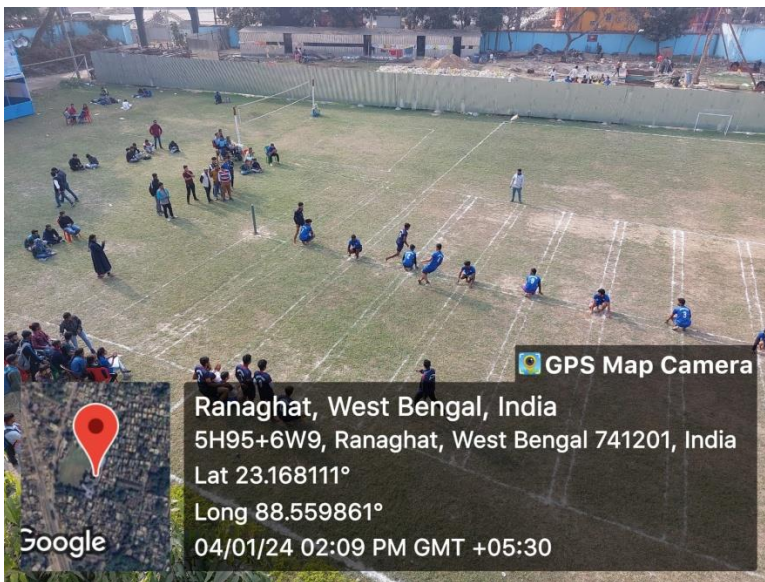

This day also witnessed various kinds of competition namely poster competition on Road Safety, drawing competition and recitation competition. A large number of students participated in every competition and performed brilliantly. Posters were quite charming and revealed the ingenuity and fertile imagination of participants. The recitation of learners enthralled the audience. The drawing competition attracted a considerable number of learners who were able to display their artistic talent and impress the audience with their paintings. The concerned committees conducted all kinds of competition smoothly and announced the names of winners in the end.

In the afternoon, Kho Kho matches for men and women were organized. Both students and the staff of college enjoyed those matches.

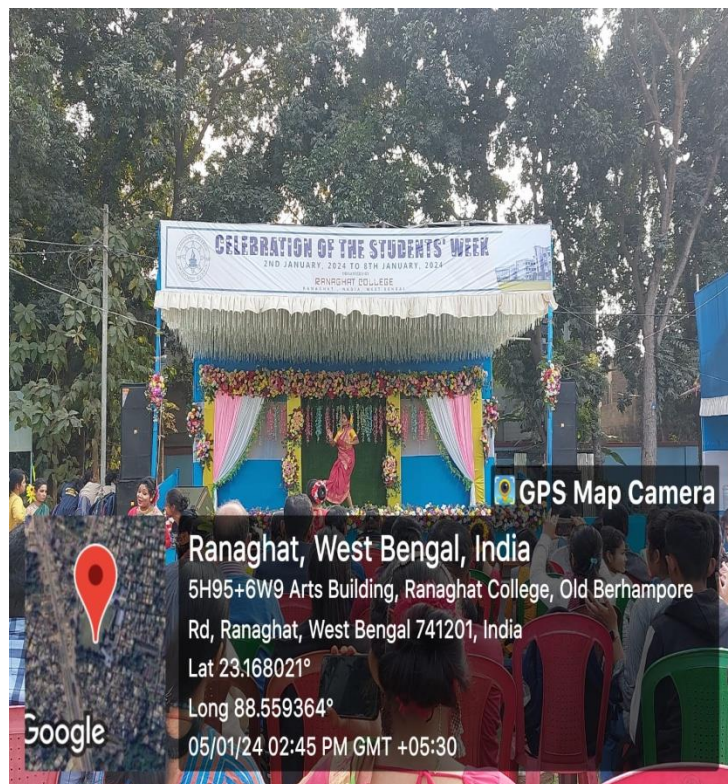

Day 4

The early part of the day was marked for the Parent-Teacher meeting. A considerable number of guardians took a keen interest in the meeting and came to college to attend the meeting. The guardians raised various issues concerning learners in the meeting and were satisfied with the cordial attitude and responses of teachers. It was followed by dance competition and essay competition. For the essay competition, the topic was Women and Children are the Sole Victims of the War. Twenty two students altogether participated in the essay competition and revealed their rare intellectual capacity and brilliant writing skill. The concerned committee conducted the competition smoothly and announced the names of winners at the end of the competition.

The dance competition was quite enjoyable. Learners participated in different categories of dance. They performed dance to the accompaniment of Rabindra Sangeet, Nazrul Geeti, Modern Song and Folk Song and enthralled the audience with their brilliant performance on the stage. The concerned committee organized the competition smoothly and announced the names of winners in the end.

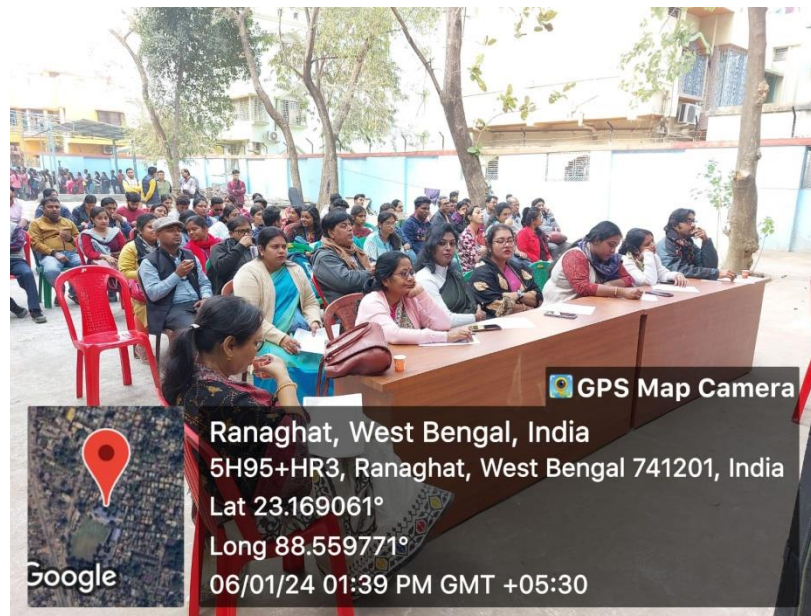

Day 5

The program on this day started with Career Counseling. The coordinator of IQAC threw light on the purpose of career counseling. Some members of teaching faculty suggested various ways to learners in order to make them employable. Keeping in view the prevailing situation in respect of employment, speakers pointed out various prospects of job and different kinds of training for learners. A large number of learners of all departments took a keen interest in career counseling and were benefited from the program.

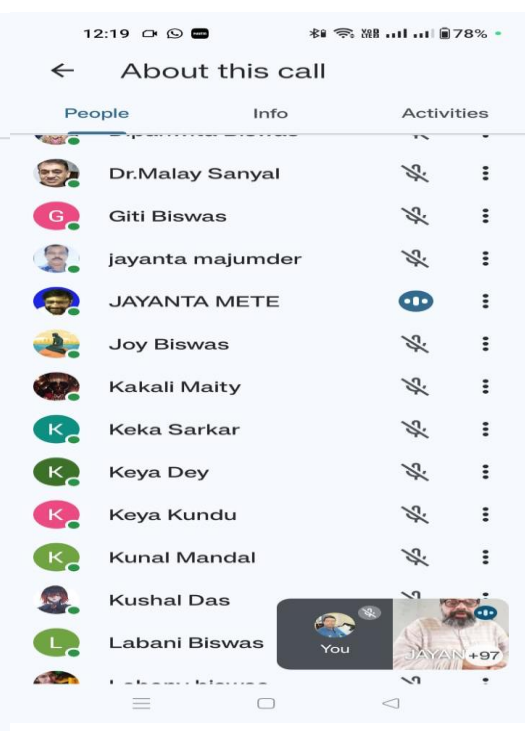

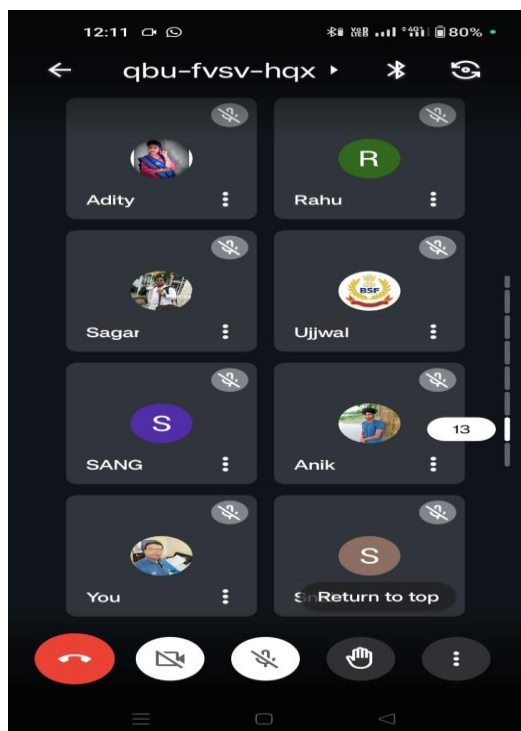

The day witnessed competition of various kinds of music namely Rabindra Sangeet, Nazrul Geeti, Modern Song and Folk Song. The budding singers participated in all kinds of music competition and captivated audience with their melodious voice. The music competition was conducted by the concerned committee smoothly and the names of winners were announced at the end of the competition. In the afternoon, volley ball matches among learners were organized in the spacious playground of college by the dedicated committee for games and sports. Those matches were exciting and entertained students and all the members of the staff of college.

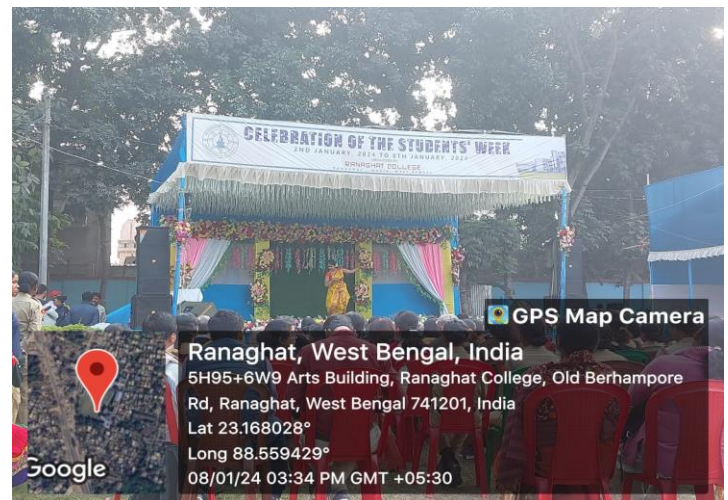

Day 6

This being Sunday, an online seminar was organized on National Education Policy and Digital Education for making students aware of different aspects of New Education Policy, 2020. The seminar started with the welcome address of the Principal followed by the speech of the Coordinator of IQAC. The distinguished speakers namely Professor Jayanta Mete and Professor Arjun Das of Department of Education of University of Kalyani delivered their illuminating lecture on the topic. Professor Jayanta Mete is an outstanding scholar in the field of Education and is associated with many research works, journals and Board of Studies of different universities. He discussed in detail the paradigm shift in the policy of educational system found in the NEP, 2020. He threw light on the fact how the new policy would develop the interpretive skill of learners and make them employment-oriented. Another distinguished speaker Professor Arjun Das focused his lecture mainly on the policy of developing technical skill of learners in course of their undergraduate studies as illustrated in the NEP, 2020.

Day 7

The day witnessed the concluding part of the week-long program. In the beginning, the male and female cadets of NCC performed their parade in the playground of college. It was followed by the colorful cultural programs featuring the winners of music and dance competition. They staged enthralling dance performance and presented melodious songs which struck the chord of hearts of the audience. Thereafter the female cadets of NCC displayed their musical talent and dancing skill. The closing ceremony was adorned by the Principal, the members of Governing Body and other dignitaries. The prize distribution took place in the afternoon.

The Principal, the members of Governing Body and the teaching faculty gave away prizes to the best performers in every competition. Finally, the college authority extended thanks to students and other stakeholders of college.

On the whole, the observance of Students' Week had a flying start and the grand finish. The active participation of all the stakeholders of Ranaghat College made the week-long program a resounding success.

Feedback: Students got overjoyed with their involvement in the observance of Students' Week. They have appreciated highly the initiative of the college authority for organizing the program.

Outcome:

1. The participation of students in various kinds of competition during the program has helped the teaching faculty and authority to identify performers with specific talent. In future, it will be convenient to select the talented performers for the cultural and athletic events to be organized at the university, state and national level.
2. The observance of Students' Week has served the purpose of arousing the interest of learners in campus activities and ensuring their attendance at college in large number.
